ABOUT LADY ELLIOT ISLAND

Lady Elliot Island has a fascinating history, emerging about 3,500 years ago when sea birds brought vital seeds and guano that helped vegetation take root. Over the years, the island faced challenges, from guano miners in the 1800s to the introduction of goats, which slowed regrowth. But in 1969, aviator Don Adams began an enthusiastic revegetation project, bringing native plants from nearby islands and the mainland. Thanks to his efforts, Lady Elliot has blossomed into a stunning wildlife sanctuary, home to the second highest diversity of seabirds on the Great Barrier Reef.

As part of the largest living structure on Earth, the Great Barrier Reef stretches over 2,300 kilometers, offering a breathtaking range of marine life. The reef surrounding Lady Elliot Island is nestled in a protected 'Green Zone,' ensuring vibrant, colorful marine ecosystems. The Reef's vast expanse spans 14 degrees of latitude, from shallow estuaries to deep ocean waters, creating a rich tapestry of habitats and species, making it one of the most diverse and complex natural wonders in the world. Come explore this unforgettable paradise!

TRANSPORTATION

Arrival Airport: Hervey Bay/Fraser Coast (Recommended)

Access to Lady Elliot Island Eco Resort is on a small aircraft chartered from Seair Pacific to transport guests to and from the Island. As Lady Elliot Island is the most remote Great Barrier Reef Island regularly accessed, boat access is impractical.

Seair has been the provider of aircraft charter to the resort since 1996 and its pilots are very experienced in operating into and out of the grass airstrip which runs the entire length of the island.

We will help you book these flights once we have your inbound & outbound flight information.

Lady Elliot Island is the only coral cay Island with an airstrip on the Great Barrier Reef. The scenic flight transfers are one of the highlights of the overall guest experience and all visitors enjoy two scenic flights providing a bird's eye view of the reef as part of their visit to our unique Island paradise.

Lady Elliot Island is a private closed destination and permission to access the Island is only granted by the Lady Elliot Island Eco Resort, no other flight access is permitted.
