ABOUT RAJA AMPAT

Raja Ampat is an archipelago located off the coast of West Papua, Indonesia, known for its stunning natural beauty and biodiversity. Comprising over 1,500 islands, it is renowned as one of the world's top diving destinations, with vibrant coral reefs and diverse marine life, including manta rays and thousands of fish species. Raja Ampat's pristine environment, crystal-clear waters, and rich cultural heritage make it a popular spot for ecotourism and adventure travel. Its remote location also contributes to its preservation, as it remains relatively untouched by mass tourism.

Raja Ampat's waters are remote, protected, and biologically productive, making it one of the most spectacular places to encounter crystal clear water and lush coral walls rich with marine life. With a wide selection of dive sites that are easily accessible with the resort's dive boats, there is something for everyone, from macro photographers to Manta Ray lovers, and from beginners to advanced divers.

TRANSPORTATION

Arrival Airport: (SOQ) Sorong

Meridian Adventure Dive Resort is located in Waisai (the Capital of Raja Ampat), on the island of Waigeo which is an island across the channel from Sorong.

International flights that land in Jakarta allow for the most direct flight to Sorong (SOQ). The most ideal flight from Jakarta departs in the early hours of the morning arriving in Sorong between 06:30–07:10am. This allows you to get the morning ferry over to Waisai.
